

Admissions Helpdesk: Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: What are the target branches and basic academic criteria for joining the B.Tech program?

The institute offers specializations in CSE, AI&ML, Data Science, and ECE. Applicants must have passed their 10+2 Higher Secondary/Intermediate exam with Physics, Chemistry, and Mathematics (PCM). General category students require a minimum of 50% aggregate in PCM, while BC, SC, and ST students require a minimum aggregate of 45% in PCM.

Q2: How does the counseling and seat allocation process function?

Seats are allocated transparently through a centralized web-based counseling process operated by the state authority, driven by the candidate's entrance exam rank. After an online provisional seat allocation, candidates must report physically to the campus administration counter within 5 working days for verification to secure their seat.

Q3: What are the mandatory costs and caution deposits needed at admission?

The annual tuition fee for engineering tracks is ₹1,20,000, which can be distributed in two equal semester installments. There is an annual institutional infrastructure fee of ₹5,000 for laboratory and library access. A one-time security caution deposit of ₹10,000 is collected at enrollment, which is completely refundable upon graduation.

Q4: Are on-campus accommodation facilities available, and what are their costs?

Yes, secure on-campus residential housing is available on a first-come, first-served basis. The annual room accommodation fee is ₹45,000, covering standard utilities and Wi-Fi. The dining/mess hall contract fee is ₹35,000 per academic year, delivering 4 meals a day.

Q5: What are the cancellation deadlines and tuition refund structures?

Cancellations filed prior to the official initiation of orientation classes receive a full refund minus a ₹1,000 processing fee. Cancellations made within the first 15 days of class initiation receive an 80% tuition refund. Withdrawals between 16 to 30 days receive a 50% tuition refund. No refunds are issued after 30 days of the session beginning.
